All Are Welcome!

*As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him,
"Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!"
Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings?
Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down."
When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple,
Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,
"Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them,
"Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say,
'I am he!' and they will lead many astray.
When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed;
this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines.
This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.*

WELCOME & PASSING THE PEACE

Leader: The peace of the Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

+CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We gather together to worship; knowing that God is already here among us; knowing that there is nothing that separates us from the presence of our Lord.

People: Wherever we are, wherever we go, God is near.

Leader: So let us enter into this service of worship with confidence and hope, knowing that God is already with us, and that He stands eager to meet us and bless us with His love.

+OPENING PRAYER

Holy One, there is no God like you. In praise and thanksgiving, we come before you ready to learn of your power, ready to follow your path for our lives. Through days of jubilation as well as despair, help us realize your influence in the world. We ask simply for ears to hear, eyes to see, and minds to comprehend the blessings you bestow. Amen.

+PRAYER OF DEDICATION

O Lord, today we offer you our sacrifice of time, energy, and love, knowing full well they are mere tokens of the awesome faith you inspire within us. Accept these gifts, that they may continue the good work in Christ —in our church, in our community, and in the world. Blessed be the name of the Lord! Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Hebrews 10:11-25

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds," he also adds, "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more." Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Leader: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.
